

User Additional Fields

User Additional Fields allow administrators to create custom fields and use them to create/edit additional information in a user's profile.