

Users

This class manages user accounts created in the cloud. It enables you to set up different types of user and allocate their role. Roles define user access to cloud resources and functions, including managing virtual servers and appliances, performing actions on templates and backups, and configuring data stores and networks.